

INTERN MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Membership Details

Intern membership is available for those that have completed their studies and are currently employed or consulting in the heritage field. Intern membership can be held for a minimum of 1 year up to a maximum of five years, after which the member may apply for Professional status. Interns must submit an annual log describing their heritage project experience, as well as conferences and workshops attended.

Intern members may not vote or stand for office, and they may not use the acronym CAHP after their name. This privilege is given once an Intern has applied for and has been approved for Professional status. By reading and signing the Code of Professional Conduct & Ethics Agreement below, an Intern member agrees with these terms.
